Please take note of the following:

Grade R fees

Grade R pupils will be provided with their stationery requirements, the cost of which is included in the school fees.

Early Settlement Discount

5% discount will be granted to parents who settle their child's annual fees in full by 28 February 2022.

Payment of fees

- All parents are obligated to pay school fees in terms of Section 40 of the South African School's Act, unless they have been granted exemption from the payment of fees.
- Annual fees are due and payable in advance on 1 January 2022. Should parents be unable to pay fees upfront, they may pay in 11 equal instalments commencing on the 1 January 2022 and ending on 1 November 2022.
- If one instalment is outstanding by the due date, the full outstanding amount of school fees becomes due and payable.
- Monthly school fees are payable by the 1st day of each month. Payment must be made directly to the school's current account at First National Bank, Account number 62-010-333-128. Please use your child's name and surname as the reference.

Fee alleviation

- Applications for fee alleviation (partial or full fee exemption) will be accepted from 1 February 2022 and we appeal to parents who wish to apply to submit their completed application forms, with the required supporting documentation, before the end of February. The assessment criteria used is in accordance with The Exemption of Parents from the Payment of School Fees Regulations (as amended in Government Gazette 29392 of 17 November, 2006).
- Fee alleviation is not available for Grade R fees.

Unpaid fees

Accounts that are three months or more in arrears without suitable payment arrangements will be handed over to our collection agency and will attract additional charges and interest.

Aftercare fees

- Aftercare fees will be charged monthly and are payable in advance. Daily rates are available by arrangement.
- Children may not attend aftercare if their school fees are in arrears.
